Mattapoisett Library Prepares for Renovations

By Virginia Morgan

Library History

With expansion and renovation plans underway for the Mattapoisett Town Library on Barstow Street, the following information explains the background as to how the town library was started.

Unlike neighboring towns whose libraries were formed by legislation, action was taken by the Mattapoisett voters to offer residents a library. In 1880, the idea of a library was discussed; then voters at the 1881 Annual Town Meeting agreed to incorporate, and the dog fund of $59.96 was appropriated. Captain Charles Bryant kindly volunteered a lecture on "Alaska" which netted $7.20 to purchase books.

With these monies, the unused room in the upper story of the East Village school-house was fitted up with a few shelves and a high desk. A section was railed off at the rear end, and the "library" was opened to the public.

Beginning with 40 volumes purchased by the trustees and about 25 contributed by townspeople, the library became so popular that Monday evening became "library night" and one had to draw a number for his/her turn to take out a book.

Because of the greater number of books acquired over the years and the need for more room, the library was moved in 1892 to the then-vacant store on the northeast corner of Main and Cannon Streets and was opened four times a week. (In earlier years, Main Street covered what is now Water Street.)

With the ever-increasing need for more space, the 1902 Annual Town Meeting resulted in Mr. George Purrington Jr. offering $10,000 for a library building. The library was built in 1904 on the present lot, which was donated by Mr. Samuel D. Warren of Boston.

This brings us to the present date and definite need for the expansion of the library to meet the needs of the residents now and in the 21st century.

Library Support

In preparation for a major renovation and building project to revitalize the Mattapoisett Free Public Library, a group of volunteers has been meeting to establish a new non-profit support group, the Friends of the Mattapoisett Library.

Membership is open to all persons interested in supporting and expanding the library. Dues range from $10 for an individual to $25 for a patron, with a special $5 discount for seniors (age 60 or older) and young people (age 13 to 18). In addition, family membership is available at $15.

Besides fundraising, the group has targeted several areas of improvement that were identified by library patrons during a recent user survey conducted by the library staff. These include: a rental library for popular best-sellers, increased programs for children and adults, on-site child care for special programs, additional museum passes, workshops on computer software and Internet access, and a new library newsletter to keep patrons informed of new materials and events.

Applications for membership are available at the Mattapoisett Library, 7 Barstow Street, or by calling 758-4171.

ORR Junior High Hosts Family Literacy Evening

By Justin Gallagher

On Wednesday, April 29, the Title I program at Old Rochester Regional Junior High School will be sponsoring a "Family Literacy Evening" for families with children in the program. Mr. Gary Maestas, Principal of ORR Junior High School, will be hosting the evening, which will begin with a buffet-style dinner.

Following the meal, renowned storyteller, raconteur, reciter, and folk singer Maggi Peirce will be reading. Maggi, who was born in Belfast, Northern Ireland, incorporates the stories, songs and poems of her homeland into her performance. She has an extensive collection of works which include a number of published pieces including a book of rhymes and three recordings.

Maggi has performed in Belfast and numerous locations in America and Canada. With such a reputation, it is of no surprise that she has received awards from the University of Massachusetts at Dartmouth, the Massachusetts Arts and Humanities, and the National Storytelling Festival in Jonesborough, Tennessee.

It is through this magnificent entertainer that many individuals are able to experience details of a culture as if they were actually a character in the piece of work being read; for it is the words, and of course the delivery, which bring them to life.

Invitations have been sent to parents who have children in the Title I program. The Title I staff hopes you and your family can join them for this worthwhile experience. They expect it to be a festive evening of not only excellent food, but also transcendent storytelling, all provided by Principal Gary Maestas and the staff of the ORR Junior High School Title I program. Please contact Justin Gallagher at 758-4928 for more information or if you wish to attend.

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting
April 14, 1998
By Rebecca Fortin

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, April 14, 1998 at 7:00 pm. Present were Selectman Paul R. Lambalot, Selectman Michele Bernier, newly-elected Selectman Barry Denham, and Executive Secretary Carol Adams.

The evening began with Selectman Bernier presenting the board with a proposed "Policies and Procedures for the Town of Mattapoisett's Board of Selectmen." Selectman Bernier explained that the implementation of such a policy has been in the works for over a year, with the help of Executive Secretary Carol Adams. "In light of Jack (DeCosta) being here as Selectman for twenty-one years, it didn't seem appropriate to introduce the policy in his last year," said Selectman Bernier.

Further explaining that Mr. DeCosta had been Selectmen Chairman for fifteen years, she said that everyone felt "uncomfortable that someone else will be in the chair."

Both Selectman Lambalot and Selectman Denham said they would like to have an opportunity to read the document thoroughly and decide on it.

The Selectmen began a discussion in regards to who was interested in becoming the board's chairman. Selectman Bernier said that she had tremendous interest in the position. She explained that this could possibly be her last year to be chairman, because she may or may not run for re-election, and if she did choose to run, she may or may not be re-elected.

Selectman Lambalot also expressed interest in the position of chairman. Selectman Denham nominated him, and consequently Selectman Bernier offered the title to him. Thus, Selectman Paul Lambalot was appointed Chairman of the Board.

The first appointment of the evening was with members of the Mattapoisett School Committee, who appointed Eleanor Lewis to the Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical School Committee.

The second appointment for the evening was with Town Accountant Joseph R. Bolton, who formally offered his resignation to the board, effective April 30, 1998. Mr. Bolton explained that he was accepting a position in Seekonk, where they are "anxious for me to come on board."

Harbormaster Steve Mach was the next appointment for the evening. He came before the board to introduce new policies he would like to see implemented. He explained that at present there are no ways to determine when moorings have been last inspected, and that currently the inspections are performed every three years. His new plan would allow moorings to be assigned numbers, and to have those numbers placed on the bottom of the moorings, and having those numbers categorized in terms of inspection dates.

He also would like to see a way a local business can obtain a mooring upon request without having to wait on an endless waiting list. He would like to see local businesses meet the following criteria to be eligible for a mooring: first, they must be a local business, they must employ at least four employees, and they must prove they are dependent on the water for their livelihood. The board approved his recommendations.

The next appointment for the evening was with Jan Collins in regards to her Ice Cream Slip Renewal License. The license states that the Ice Cream Slip will be in operation from May through October from 6:00 am to 9:00 pm, closing at 10:00 pm when there are special events taking place at the gazebo in Shipyard Park.

Also, the establishment will remain in a designated place as per the board, provide their own garbage cans, offer insurance, pay $240 monthly beginning June 1 to the town, pay $1200 for the license, will serve a variety of snacks, and agree to re-negotiate this license every year. The board agreed to the parameters of the license as presented.

The last appointment for the evening was with Town Clerk Lois Ennis and Joe Slattery of the Computer Advisory Board, who were present to discuss a Mission Statement that they had put together.

They will consider the following: take an inventory of town-owned computer hardware and software; create a training curriculum; provide technical support; implement equipment deployment; and, ultimately, set-up a town-wide website.

Under incoming correspondence for the week were the following:

• ORR High School Secretary to the Principal Ruth Cote is seeking a resident of the town to participate on a committee to award the X Fund Scholarship Trust Fund. She would like the person to remain anonymous. The board thought it may be appropriate if a former recipient of the award be appointed. Any interested candidates are welcome to contact the board.

• Memo from Dick Gamache inviting the board at 7:00 pm by Chairman Loretta B. Schaefer. Also present were Selectman Albert E. Winters, Selectman Jonathan "Jody" Dickerson, Executive Secretary Ray Pickles, and Secretary Helene Craver.

The board first met with the members of the Sippican School Building Committee, who recently interviewed potential contractor candidates for the Sippican School renovation and expansion project. Both committee member Wayne Mattson and Selectman Albert Winters excused themselves from the meeting, since they both work for TCI, a company which may be involved with the project.

The committee received 11 responses to the town's Request for Proposals (RFE's), and the committee narrowed that down to four firms which were interviewed. Of these, they selected two possible candidates and then reviewed their references and spoke to past employers.

In a letter from vice chairman Jack Noble, he noted that the committee unanimously voted to recommend that the project be awarded to the firm of Strekalovvsky and Hoit, Inc. from Hingham, MA. Committee members agreed that the firm came highly recommended and had past experience with similar school projects.

Mr. Pickles advised that the Board of Selectmen needed to vote to award the bid to Strekalovvsky and Hoit, subject to forthcoming Town Meeting approval (April 27) and subsequent passage of the override to fund the project (May 1). The board unanimously voted to approve the Building Committee's recommendation — with Selectman Winters abstaining. The next step in the process is to open sealed bids on the project and wait for the forthcoming Town Meeting approval.

On a similar note, Mr. Pickles said he talked to Town Counsel and he was advised that the members of the Sippican School Building Committee need to be appointed as "special municipal employees" to avoid any potential conflict. The board voted 2-to-1 — with Selectman Winters abstaining — to appoint them as special municipal employees.

Mr. Pickles also said that both Mr. Mattson and Selectman Winters can remain on the committee and can participate with the exception of any issues relating to their firm, TCI.

After signing the treasury warrant for the week and approving the minutes of the April 7 meeting, the board went over the following incoming correspondence for the week:

• Ecological Engineering Associates (EEA) of Marion sent a copy of their letter to Ron White of the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) advising that they will discontinue operating a small research and development project at the town's wastewater treatment facility. "While it did an excellent job treating septage, it is not economical for EEA to operate a facility with such low flows," wrote EEA President Susan Peterson.

Chairman Schaefer said she was disappointed to learn that the research facility is leaving the town's facility.

• Memo from the Board of Health regarding the SouthCoast visiting medical van. Initially, the board had suggested that the van be stationed at either the bandshell, Old Landing Wharf, or in the rear of the Town House parking lot. They have since decided that a more central location would be better, and have obtained permission from the Marion General Store to park the van in their parking lot.

As such, the van will be in the Marion General Store parking lot on Thursday, May 14 from 10:30 am to 3:30 pm. The Board of Health wished to thank Jack Cheney of the Marion General Store for allowing them to use his parking lot.

The board next unanimously approved a request from the Marion Police Brotherhood for use of Silvershell Beach on June 27 from 5:00 to 10:00 pm for their Annual Summer Concert.

The board then unanimously voted to re-appoint the following to the Board of Fire Engineers for a term to expire on April 30, 1999: George D. Jenney, C. Robert Davis, Theodore Laycock, Peter D. Robertson, and Richard J. Guerzoni.

At 7:15 pm the board met with members of the Tree Planting Committee and Phillip Rodbell of the State Forester's Office, who wished to make a presentation. Mr. Rodbell was pleased to announce that Marion has been named a 1997 Tree City USA for their recent efforts to plant trees in town and last year's Arbor Week celebration. Marion is one of 56 other communities in Massachusetts to be designated with this national honor.

As part of the presentation, Mr. Rodbell gave the committee and the board a plaque, a flag, and street signs declaring "Tree City USA."

"This recognition also increases the town's eligibility for grants," Mr. Rodbell said. "There will be competitive grants available in the fall ... and right now legislators are working on a $300,000 appropriation bill for tree planting in cities and towns. The 'Tree City USA' designation gives Marion a step up in the grant application process."

"I want to congratulate the Tree Planting Committee," Chairman Schaefer said. "You have been working hard on this effort."

In other matters, the board noted:

• The Marion Police Brotherhood has purchased six outdoor park benches for the use of town residents. They were seeking suggestions for possible locations for the benches. Among the potential sites were outside Music Hall, between the library and the Town House, at Silvershell Beach, at Old Landing, or in Bicentennial

• The 1997 Marion Annual Town Reports are now completed and available at the Town House to be picked up. The board wished to recognize the continued efforts of Helene Craver in preparing the report each year.

• One of the town's weekly "bench warmers," Tyler Blethen, was celebrating his 80th birthday that evening. The board wished to express a "Happy Birthday" to Mr. Blethen, who remarked: "I've got my eye on that (Boston Post) cane ... maybe in another 20 years."

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 7:30 pm.

BUY OR SELL FIRST

Here is one of the oldest questions in the real estate business: "Should I sell my house first and then scramble to buy a new one or should I find the new one first and then sell?"

Actually, both steps could be taking place simultaneously, but you'll need more information first and a helping hand to coordinate the steps so they'll fall into place painlessly. Your first step should be a visit to an experienced residential agency like ours. We will prepare a marketing plan for your present home. This will give you a firm basis for planning your new purchase. You'll have an idea of the cash you will have available to use for the downpayment on the next house. Also, you'll have a time-frame for the sale of your present home from listing to passing. This will help in planning the time you'll need to wrap up the purchase of the new home.

In selling one home to buy another, you are not alone. Over 70% of all residential transactions are hinged on one sale taking place before another is consummated. Our agency will help make this transition more profitable and less stressful.

Call Bruce today with any of your Real Estate questions or needs. We're here to help!! 758-6738.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

April 13, 1998

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, April 13, 1998 at 7:03 pm by Chairman Richard D. Cutler. Also present were Selectman Lorraine Roy Hawkes, Selectman William D. Chamberlain, Executive Secretary Russell Dean, and Administrative Assistant Veronica Lafreniere.

After unanimously approving the minutes of the April 6 meeting of the board, with some corrections made, the board met with members of the Rochester Firefighters' Association at 7:05 pm to discuss their use of town-owned buildings for upcoming functions. Apparently, Mr. Dean had questioned the use of town buildings for fund-raising events, and the Association wanted further clarification.

In a letter to the board from Scott Weigel, President of the Rochester Firefighters' Association, he noted: "The Rochester Firefighters' Association is a tax-exempt, non-profit organization. Over the past year and a half, the Association has donated to the town $18,113.88 in vehicles and equipment. We have spoken to David Hofsteten of the State Ethics Commission, (and) he feels that the Association using town buildings would not be a conflict of interest issue."

Mr. Dean further supported this opinion. "They've gotten a ruling from the State Ethics Commission ... and since they are a non-profit organization, they can use town buildings with the Board of Selectmen's permission," he said.

The board unanimously voted to allow the Rochester Firefighters' Association to use town-owned buildings such as the Fire Station and Memorial School for forthcoming fund-raising events, which include the annual Father's Day Clambake, the Memorial Day Boat

Under the Executive Secretary's report, Mr. Dean reviewed a draft of the warrant for the Annual Town Meeting, and noted that the deadline had been reached for submission of articles. "As of (today), I'm not going to take any more articles," he said. "The Finance Committee (FinCom) just needs to review (their recommendations) so the board can approve it."

The board agreed they would wait for the FinCom to fine-tune the articles and would vote and approve the final warrant at their April 27 meeting.

board received a letter from Senator Marc Pacheco requesting another letter of support on behalf of House Bill 5353, which would allow local cities and towns to retain control over regulation of cellular communication towers. Senator Pacheco asked the board to again draft a letter supporting House Bill 5353 and opposing supplemental budget language that strips cities and towns of zoning authority over the siting of cellular towers.

The board unanimously voted to have Mr. Dean draft a letter of support on their behalf. "I think our by-laws are fine as written," Selectman Chamberlain added with regard to the siting of cellular towers, "even though they weren't written with cellular towers in mind. I know Mattapoisett and other area towns are working to amend their by-laws."

MediaOne submitted a copy of their third annual Progress Report to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The board agreed to forward this information to the Cable Advisory Committee.

The Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA) sent a memo to the board regarding the fencing issue at Murphy's Auto Salvage on County Road. According to ZBA Chairman Charles Wolf: "We have determined that the fencing is not in compliance."

"The question that jumps out at me is: 'What is the ZBA going to do about it?'" Chairman Cutler asked.

Selectman Hawkes noted that the ZBA is not the enforcing authority over zoning issues, but Selectman Chamberlain did agree that they should offer some guidance to the Zoning Enforcement Officer as to how to proceed. The board asked ZBA Chairman Wolf to attend their April 27 meeting for further clarification.

The SEMASS Partnership next sent payment to the Town of Rochester in lieu of taxes for the month of March, 1998 in the amount of $210,529.84 representing a net 94,408 tons of trash received. In addition, SEMASS sent a retroactive $8,314.75 to cover the increase in per-ton rate from $2.18 to $2.23 (a 2.1 percent hike) for 1998. The total check enclosed was for $218,844.59.

Rochester Candidates' Night at the clubhouse on Route 105 on Monday, May 4 beginning at 7:30 pm with Anne Holbrook serving as moderator. All candidates and residents are cordially invited to attend. For more information, please contact Virginia Cutler at 763-2735.

The board also received an invitation to attend the state's Census 2000 Kickoff on May 7 at Fanueil Hall in Boston. Chairman Cutler thought a representative from Rochester should attend, but Selectman Chamberlain said this was more of a "political show" event. Mr. Dean said he would check to see if Town Clerk Naida Parker planned on attending.

The board was next asked to sign and approve a Flammable Fluid Permit for Fred Miller for an underground 550-gallon propane tank. But the board had some questions as to whether the tank had been inspected, and if the state Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) also needed to be notified of the removal of the existing tank at the site.

"I think we need to have (Fire Chief) Scott Ashworth come in to discuss this further," Chairman Cutler said. "We need to know if this tank has been inspected before we approve the permit." They agreed to hold this matter for their next meeting.

In other business, the board also agreed to:

• Have Executive Secretary Dean pursue advertising specifications for the process of auctioning off various parcels of town-owned land. "We need to write up how the ad should read," Chairman Cutler said, "and we need to establish rules in the ad that we won't accept bids less than the value of the property."

• Inspect the LaValley Brothers business site on May 4 at 6:00 pm, and send a notice to the owners via registered mail. The board had previously set a deadline of April 21 to clean up the property as a condition of their Class III license renewal application.

• Appropriate $500 out of the Selectmen's budget to create framed screened prints of the town seal which will be used as gifts to residents for long-term service to the town. Selectman Chamberlain noted the initial screen will cost about $250 to create, and each subsequent print would cost an estimated $7.50, not including framing.

• Request Executive Secretary Dean to look into alternative sources of communications for the town which may save money in the long run. Right now, many town departments are using a variety of communication systems and hardware. Mr. Dean hopes to find package deals that are more cost-efficient.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 8:13 pm. Due to the Patriots Day holiday next Monday (April 20), the board will not meet next week. The next regular Selectmen's meeting will be held on Monday, April 27 at 7:00 pm.

Championship Lady Bulldogs

"Deserve to Win" was the motto for the State Championship Division 3 ORR High School Lady Bulldog Basketball Team. And win they did! In capturing the first state title in the history of the high school, these young ladies set the standard for teamwork, sportsmanship, and commitment for young and old throughout the SouthCoast region.

That is why the ORR Girls Basketball Association, in conjunction with Varsity Coach Bob Hohne, believe these young ladies deserve recognition worthy of champions. The extraordinary team has captured the imagination of many and there has been a tremendous outpouring of support and enthusiasm from local fans.

In response to the many inquiries the Association has received from the community, they are asking for your support by way of donations to assist them in congratulating these girls in a manner befitting their accomplishments. Special plaques, banners, jackets, and commemorative awards are planned for the banquet scheduled for May 17, 1998.

Your generous contribution in honoring these unique student-athletes will be greatly appreciated. If you have any questions, please call Bob Bourque (763-5462), Janet Liljedahl (758-2479), or Elaine O'Shaughnessy (748-

HEARTWORMS

My dog is coughing. Could she have heartworms?

Yes, your dog could have heartworms. Although, if she has a blood test each year and takes the preventative either daily or once a month, it is unlikely. Have your veterinarian examine her and test her for heartworms.

I have heard that dogs that get heartworms are given arsenic. Is that really true?

Unfortunately, yes. Arsenic compounds cause the hearworms to die slowly. Heartworms are spaghetti-like worms that live in the heart and arteries of the lungs. If all of the worms died at the same time, they would clog the arteries to the lungs and kill the dog.

Which is better, the daily or monthly heartworm preventative?

For most people, the monthly preventatives are more convenient. The daily medications must be given every day or the dog is at risk of getting heartworms. There is more of a cushion of safety with the monthly preventatives if you miss the correct day of the month.

Is it better to give the monthly medication all year round or is it better to discontinue during the winter months?

Talk to your veterinarian. Many recommend year round preventative for a variety of reasons. One of which is that the monthly preventative medications help treat intestinal parasites which can be acquired throughout the year.

Mattapoisett Warrant Discussion

Are you like many residents who read the Town Meeting warrant as Moderator Blasdale goes through the articles one-by-one? Do you have a hard time reading the print in the dim light of the Old Rochester Regional High School auditorium? Do things get confusing? Are you afraid your questions for clarification may be poorly phrased due to the pressures of the moment? Well ... there may a solution for you!

Join the Mattapoisett Citizens Initiative (MCI) on Wednesday, April 22 at 7:30 pm in the Conference Room of Town Hall for a "leisurely stroll" through the major items on the Mattapoisett Town Meeting warrant. The group will attempt a balanced presentation of the pros and cons for several articles. Please call 758-6279 if there are specific articles you would especially like to have addressed in the forum. Whether you're a resident for a year or a lifetime, all points of view are welcome, and participants can look forward to a lively, enlightening

Marion MS Walk

The 1998 Marion Multiple Sclerosis (MS) Walk will step off on Saturday, April 18 at 10:00 am from Sippican School. Nick Bryan-Brown of Mattapoisett is the event's official Ambassador.

Funds raised from various MS Walks, the Society's largest and most successful campaign, will help the Massachusetts Chapter continue to provide vital, local services to Massachusetts families living with this disease. Funds from the MS Walk will additionally help the Chapter remain one of the largest contributors to MS research in the country.

And these efforts are finally bringing some results. The past five years have brought several exciting breakthroughs in MS research, along with new hope that one day in the not-too-distant future, MS will be a disease of the past.

The MS Walk to support local services and research will make its tri-town debut this year in Marion. The event will take place on Saturday, April 18 starting at 10:00 am from Sippican School. The eight-kilometer walk will conclude with a great lunch, good company, and entertainment. For more information on how to participate, please call the National MS Society at 1-800-493-WALK, or the local MS Chapter office in Wareham at 291-2169.

Tri-Town Men's Fellowship

The Tri-Town Men's Fellowship will hold a semi-gourmet breakfast on Sunday, April 19 beginning with an 8:15 am coffee and chat. The complete breakfast will be ready by 8:45 am for a $4 donation. Those interested in coffee only are asked to make a $1 donation.

The speaker will be Marion Selectman Al Winters, who will talk on "Marion and its Future." From his experience and knowledge, Mr. Winters will answer some of the questions involving the future of the all-important school plans. With an increasing school population, what are the town's choices?

This is a great way to start the week and join any other residents of the tri-town area at St. Gabriel's Parish Hall on South Street in Marion. A great speaker, great subject, and great breakfast await you.

Joe Tomlinson Fellowship Award

Each year for over a decade, the Tri-Town Men's Fellowship has given the Joe Tomlinson Fellowship Award to a person or persons who have unselfishly given of themselves with love and compassion to help others. Nominees can come from any station or walk of life. It is the responsibility of the Joe Tomlinson Fellowship Award Committee to solicit nominations, gather background data, and submit qualified names to the Men's Fellowship.

The nominees must be from the tri-town area, and accomplishments must be outside the nominee's economic work sphere and be free from personal, company, or political or economic gain and mark a selfless endeavor to benefit the community or others. The selection is made by secret ballot by the Steering Committee without regard to age, gender, race, or religious affiliation.

The award is presented at the Annual Meeting of the Tri-Town Men's Fellowship in June and all persons in the area are requested to submit the name(s) of candidates worthy of consideration in writing including a resume of the nominee's accomplishments. Send your nomination

ACTION Spring Cleanup

A memorable Spring Cleanup? That's what Acushnet's civic group, Acushnet Citizens Together Improving Our Neighborhood (ACTION) is saying. This year, instead of meeting at the school parking lot and bringing their own sandwiches, Tilcon-Capaldi, in a good-neighborly gesture, has invited cleanup teams to assemble at their South Main Street location at 8:30 am on Saturday, April 25 for donuts and coffee, and then after a three-hour stint cleaning up the streets of Acushnet, to reassemble at noon for lunch, compliments of the host.

Memorable? ACTION thinks so, since it is the first time such cooperation has been forthcoming from the private sector, although Tilcon has helped in the past using its trucks to pick up trash bags and providing teams with fresh water.

Spring Cleanup in Marion

It has been several years since Marion has had an all-town cleanup, a situation which alas, is beginning to show. Marion residents will soon have the opportunity to correct this, and to celebrate the beginning of Earth Week with an All-Town Cleanup on Saturday, April 18 from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon, centered at Island Wharf. This Celebration of Spring in Marion is being sponsored by the Sippican Lands Trust, the Marion Tree Committee, the Marion DPW, Sippican School, Tabor Academy, and the Sippican Corporation.

This is a wonderful family activity to celebrate the coming of spring, and one which will teach our youngsters the importance of maintaining the environment. Residents should wear comfortable shoes and bring gardening gloves if available. Biodegradable trash bags and gloves donated by the Sippican

Movie Review

Lost Angels

BY ROB GONSALVES
local@wanderer.com

■ City of Angels. Starring Nicolas Cage and Meg Ryan. Directed by Brad Silberling. Running time: 117 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13. At Cinema 140 in New Bedford.

Why do so many people seem to want so badly to believe in guardian angels? To me, there's something vaguely creepy and stalker-ish about the whole concept: invisible beings floating around, watching you and maybe giving you a kindly nudge every so often. Ick. Guardian angels sound like a plot devised by an Orwellian government so that we'll gradually get used to, and even embrace, the idea of being spied on. (Now that might be an interesting movie premise. Call Oliver Stone.)

The one angel movie that gets around my defenses is, of course, Wings of Desire, Wim Wenders' acclaimed 1988 fantasy in which Bruno Ganz gives up his halo, becomes human, and wins the heart of beautiful acrobat Solveig Dommartin. A decade later, Wenders' vision comes to us Hollywoodized — not to mention bastardized — in the new remake City of Angels, in which Nicolas Cage gives up his wings to be with surgeon Meg Ryan. The movie could hardly be a better illustration of Hollywood's uncanny ability to suck all the brains out of a good idea.

City of Angels begins as Wings of Desire does, with passing glances at random citizens (in Los Angeles instead of Berlin) whose thoughts we overhear. Wenders used the device to make us feel like isolated angels, doomed to eavesdrop on people but never communicate. The filmmakers here, director Brad Silberling (Casper) and scripter Dana Stevens, don't sustain the angel's-eye device. This film is in lush color, whereas Wenders established black-and-white photography as the way angels see the world. In the remake, when an angel becomes human and marvels at the sight of his own blood — "Red! Red! Color!" — it makes no sense, since we've spent the movie seeing through his eyes and admiring John Seale's lovely color photography.

Wenders' film was also about duality and splits of all kinds; its forbidding Berlin Wall (still standing when the film was shot) and characters with double lives (including Peter Falk playing himself playing a role in a movie) gave us a brooding sense of fractured existence. People go through life looking for wholeness, taking their flawed, painful humanity for granted. There's also, of course, the eternal divide between the spirit and the flesh. City of Angels pays some feeble lip service to this last idea. Nicolas Cage, the angel protagonist, can't feel or taste or smell anything. He yearns to be human so he can be with Dr. Meg, who is specifically looking for a guy who can feel, taste, and smell things, apparently.

Somehow Meg is able to see Nicolas in her operating room, staring at her over the soon-to-be-dead body of a guy whose heart she's fondling (this must be what Hollywood calls a "meet cute"). Soon she's telling him how a pear tastes and he's getting advice from a red-faced Dennis Franz as a former angel turned human. The spiritual pieties come fast and hard, and we get a bare-assed Dennis Franz running into the surf and a scene where Meg stabs Nicolas with a knife to see if he bleeds. If a woman stabbed me to see if I bleed, I'd want to be anywhere that she's not. But no, Nicolas trades in his wings for his blade-happy sweetie.

As always, Nicolas Cage keeps his end of the bargain; he commits heart-and-soul to a role no matter how stupid the movie is, and he makes you feel the emotional highs and lows of his newly human hero. In his early scenes, when he's following Meg everywhere, he reminds you less of a creepy stalker than of a lost puppy looking for a warm lap to snuggle in. But after he turns human, City of Angels loses whatever humanity it had, regressing into pointless tragedy and manipulative tearjerking. I mean, even Wim Wenders didn't feel compelled to whack Solveig Dommartin with a lumber truck, for God's sake. We've reached a weird point in cinema history where "uplifting" Hollywood romances are more depressing than solemn German art films.

"Our Town" in Marion

On May 1 and 2 at 8:00 pm, the Marion Art Center will present the play "Our Town" by Thornton Wilder in the newly-restored Music Hall as a gift to the town to celebrate the re-opening of the historic Romanesque structure.

Many concerts and theatrical events have taken place in the Music Hall in Marion over the years. In 1932, a play called "Aren't We All" featured 100 local people in the show. The Hornblowers produced "You Can't Take It With You" and other pieces in the historic old building before moving to the Art Center in 1957.

Over 30 people will have speaking parts in the Pulitzer Prize-winning play. The directors are Jane Babbitt and Donn Tyler. The play is narrated by the stage manager, played by David Horne, who also serves as shop keeper, minister, and omniscient guide. The plot begins with a simple day in the life of a small town (named Grovers Corners, but it could easily be Marion) beginning May 7, 1901, followed by Acts II and III

Mega Marty

BY KENNETH J. SOUZA

■ The Last Temptation of Christ (1988), directed by Martin Scorsese. Criterion Collection laserdisc (1998, 2 discs, $99.95).

■ A Personal Journey with Martin Scorsese through American Movies (1995). Criterion Collection laserdisc (1998, 2 discs, $59.95).

During the recent 70th Annual Academy Awards telecast, upon receiving a Lifetime Achievement Oscar from Martin Scorsese, director Stanley Donen said it should be the other way around — that he should be, in fact, giving the award to Marty. That's probably the smartest thing anyone has ever said in 70 years of Oscar history.

Most critics agree that Martin Scorsese is one of, if not the greatest living American film director, and two recent laserdisc releases from The Criterion Collection serve to prove this assertion.

First up is the timely and long-anticipated release of Scorsese's misunderstood and underappreciated classic, The Last Temptation of Christ. Initially released in 1988 amidst a sea of controversy and a religious boycott, the film certainly won't be playing opposite "safer" Easter fare like Nicholas Ray's King of Kings, George Stevens' The Greatest Story Ever Told, or Franco Zeffirelli's omnipresent Jesus of Nazareth. But Scorsese's probing film, based on the novel by Nikos Kazantzakis, is clearly the most challenging and thought-provoking of the lot.

Taking a daring look at the humanity of Jesus Christ and the possible personal demons he had to face, Last Temptation does cross the line a few times as to what some Christians might perceive as the historical image of the Messiah. But that's just the point: Christ was both God and Man, according to the Gospels, and that would suggest that he may have had some human doubts along the way. I always found it amusing that Christian groups vehemently opposed the film (most having never seen it, mind you), and yet the source novel was often required reading for seminarians — and possibly where the once-altar-bound Marty first encountered the book.

Now movie buffs can experience Scorsese's little-seen film in its original 1.85:1 aspect ratio in a lavish new print taken from the 35-millimeter interpositive which was supervised by both the film's editor (Thelma Schoonmaker) and director of photography (Michael Ballhaus). The complete 164-minute transfer is stunning and is wisely divided equally on three sides of the double-disc, CLV (extended play) edition.

Though the laser only offers Dolby Pro Logic Surround and not the preferred Dolby Digital 5.1, it does make great use of Peter Gabriel's superb score which employs driving percussion and a variety of unique instruments. The dialogue in much of the film seems too low, however, and could have been boosted for better center-channel presence.

In addition to insightful running commentary from Martin Scorsese, star Willem Dafoe, and screenwriter Paul Schrader throughout the film on analog track 1, the ample supplementary material on the standard play (CAV) side 4 also includes a collection of research materials (including an intriguing article on methods of crucifixion), production stills and costume designs, amusing on-set video footage shot by Scorsese himself, and a video interview with composer Peter Gabriel.

For an even better understanding of what films have influenced The Last Temptation of Christ and Scorsese's other work, The Criterion Collection has also released the British Film Institute's A Personal Journey with Martin Scorsese Through American Movies. This intensive 225-minute documentary was first produced and aired in 1995, and features Marty examining some of the great American movies, directors and genres which inspired him.

Part of the documentary's charm is listening to Scorsese discuss these films like an obsessed college professor. Before Quentin Tarantino, Scorsese was the original rapid-fire-delivery movie geek, and here he gets the chance to wax nostalgic over the films which left a lasting impression on him.

Co-written and co-directed by Scorsese with Michael Henry Wilson, the documentary is broken down into concise categories and offers ample film clips — all of which are top-quality and correctly framed in their original aspect ratio (the interviews with Marty are presented full-frame, 1.33:1). Unlike an all-encompassing history of American film which often fails to present a true exploration of every film genre, Personal Journey is more like a snapshot crash-course in Marty's movie milestones.

Among the disc's highlights: an in-depth examination of three classic John Ford westerns (including an amusing clip of Ford from Peter Bogdanovich's documentary); a wonderful look at Jacques Tourneur's Cat People, which Scorsese proudly refers to as the Citizen Kane of B-movies; and a loving homage to certain "iconoclast" directors who managed to work outside the Hollywood system — auteurs like Orson Welles, Otto Preminger, Stanley Kubrick, and John Cassavetes.

The two-disc, extended play (CLV) laser is well-indexed and programmed evenly on four sides. The digital stereo soundtrack is bright and clean, and all of the film footage used is pristine (probably from some of the many film prints Scorsese has labored to restore). Though it runs nearly four hours, don't be surprised if you find yourself, like me, spending a casual Sunday afternoon watching this fascinating production in one sitting from start to finish.

At one point early in the film, Scorsese admits that for him "film is a disease." After watching A Personal Journey with Martin Scorsese Through American Movies, even the most casual film fans will find his affliction contagious.

spanning about 15 years. This timeless piece explores universal themes, emotions, and experiences and is profound in its simplicity.

There are two typical families: the Webbs and the Gibbs. Thom O'Shaughnessey plays Dr. Gibbs with Kim Kubik Keene as his wife, Andy Campbell as their son George, and Sarah Pierce as his little sister. The Webb family consists of David Pierce as Editor Webb, Cheryl Larson as his wife, J. J. Lynch as their daughter Emily, and Ronan Babbitt as her little brother. There are the milkman, the paper boy, the choir director, and assorted townspeople played by Charlie Latham, Vic Bender, Peter Smith, John Ogren, Kay Sweeney, Jack McCarthy, Pete Havel, Ted Babbitt, and Brian Scott as the constable. There will also be cameo roles by members of the audience.

There is no admission charge. FREE tickets are available at the Marion Art Center during normal gallery hours: Tuesday - Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 pm; and Saturday, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. No telephone reservations will be accepted for this show.

Walking Tours

The Fairhaven Office of Tourism has announced the dates of its spring series of walking tours. The tours were developed to highlight the history and attractions of several areas of town. From visiting an 1828 stone schoolhouse to learning about the battles at Revolutionary Fort Phoenix, there is something of interest to nearly everyone on these popular guided walks. The upcoming programs include:

• Saturday, April 25 at 2:00 pm - Poverty Point Tour. The tour begins at Old Stone Schoolhouse, corner of North Street and Castle Avenue, with guide Christopher Richard. It will last approximately 90 minutes and includes a look inside a one-room schoolhouse, stories of Manjiro Nakahama, Joshua Slocum, John Cooke, and other history related to the oldest village settlement in Fairhaven. Tour will repeat on June 13.

• Saturday, May 2 at 2:00 pm - Fairhaven Center Tour. The tour begins at Willow Park, corner of Fort and South Streets, with guide Christopher Richard. It will last approximately 90 minutes and includes visits to Union Wharf, the Town Hall, stories of Warren Delano, H. H. Rogers, the exterior of the mansion where Clara Bow appeared in the classic film "Down to the Sea in Ships," and more. The tour will repeat on June 20.

• Saturday, May 9 at 2:00 pm - Fort Phoenix Area

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). Don't get pushed into doing something you'll regret. There are all kinds of hassles, but you should be able to travel. Get started as early as possible.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Back your partner against tough odds. Your support means a lot. Resist the temptation to spend. It'll be easy to waste money.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Hide out and get the work done. Take the phone off the hook. You won't have time to talk to anyone.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Follow a hunch instead of a friend's advice. Schedule your date. These days are intense, as you try to please a demanding older person.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). A friend's stubbornness may drive you from home. You'll be back again soon and happier. Don't get distracted by a playmate or you'll be working late.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). A startling revelation at home upsets you. Commiserate with a loved one and soon the problem will be practically forgotten.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Take on extra work. It'll be fun, and you can use the money. Dig for the truth and you'll find a couple of startling revelations.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You may not be able to overpower your favorite adversary, but you can sure put up a good fight. And you may get a couple of good points across.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Be decisive and get rid of a bunch of stuff you don't need any more. That'll give you more time to play and a lot more room to do it in.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Have friends over to your place. It'll help you relax after a tough day. They will also give you tips on how to save money.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Figure out what a stern taskmaster wants without being told again, and you'll pass the big test.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). Ask someone far away for the money you need. You'll do best at work if you focus on the concept instead of the details.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: Want to be a wealthy person? Start by thinking like one. That does not mean spending more.

Tour. The tour will begin at the Hurricane Barrier, Fort Street, with guide Christopher Richard. It will last approximately 90 minutes and include Revolutionary Fort Phoenix, histories of the Fort Street homes, an area that was once the estate of millionaire Henry Huttleston Rogers.

• Sunday, May 17 at 2:00 pm - Riverside Cemetery Tour. The tour begins inside cemetery entrance on Main Street with guide Natalie Hemingway. It will last approximately 90 minutes and include burial sites of prominent citizens including H. H. Rogers, Warren Delano, artists Lemuel Eldred and William Bradford, early headstone and monument art, and more in this lovely 1850 rural style cemetery.

In addition to the weekend tours, a weekday Henry Huttleston Rogers Tour is scheduled for every Thursday at 10:00 am beginning June 25. More in-depth focus on Standard Oil Company millionaire Henry Huttleston Rogers. These tours start at the Fairhaven Visitors Center, 27 Center Street, and take about 75 minutes.

For more information, please call the Fairhaven Office of Tourism at 979-4085. The Visitors' Center is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm.

He's Here...

Every week we hide the aardvark in The Wanderer. For those of you not familiar with this practice, here's how it works. Each week we hide a little aardvark (shown above, actual size) somewhere in the newspaper (not counting the aardvark above). If you find him (or even if you don't) you can send in a postcard with your name, address, and phone number to the address below to enter our Aardvark Drawing! This week we are giving away an "I found the Aardvark" lapel pin. Send entries to: Aardvark, P.O.. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

An accomplished artist, John began photographing the gardens he discovered while on location and creating hand-painted images using pastels over the photo transfer prints. Galleries in Milton, MA and Woodbury, CT sell his prints. John will bring some to share with the group.

The Marion Garden Discussion Group plants and cares for the lovely flower boxes which adorn many of the buildings around the village, adding greatly to the ambience of Marion's public and business areas. The proceeds from this program will be used by the Garden Group in continuing its efforts to beautify the village center.

DO IT YOURSELF?

You'll Have Only Yourself to Blame!

Installing a gas or electric water heater is a job for a licensed plumbing professional. Only your plumber can provide the expertise required to do the job right the first time and suggest the right water heater to give you years of trouble free service and all the hot water you'll ever need. We recommend energy efficient, versatile water heaters from Bradford White. They are the perfect choice for the value-conscious homeowner. Bradford White water heaters come with a 2-year parts warranty, the exclusive VITRAGLAS tank lining and your choice of a 5, 8, or 10-year product warranty. Bradford White and your licensed plumbing professional, the perfect combination for your peace of mind.
